Setting

This reader's theater takes place in and around the woods. Little Red Riding Hood and her mother live near the woods. Little Red plays among the trees there. Grandma lives deep in the woods. And so does the wolf!

Act I

Narrator: A girl plays in the yard of her home. Big trees grow all around her. Birds sing in the trees. The girl wears a pretty red cape. She is called Little Red Riding Hood.

Mother: Little Red Riding Hood! Where are you?

Little Red: Here I am.

Mother: You look so pretty. What a nice red riding hood!

Little Red: Thanks! I am so glad Grandma made it for me. I want to thank her.

Mother: Do you want to visit her now? I have made a basket full of goodies. There are bread and cheese. There are apples and cookies. Will you take the basket to Grandma?

Little Red: May I go there by myself?

Mother: You are a good girl. You will be safe if you stay on the path. Yes, you may go there by yourself.

Little Red: Thanks!

Mother: But remember, Little Red. Do not talk to strangers. Just walk to Grandma's house.

Little Red: I will!

Mother: Do not forget!

Narrator: Little Red Riding Hood takes the basket of goodies. She ties her hood tightly. Then she goes into the woods. She follows the path to Grandma's house. As she goes, she sings.

Song: Over the River and Through the Woods

Little Red: Grandma will be happy to see me!

Wolf: Who is that I see?

Narrator: There is someone in the woods. He sees Little Red Riding Hood.

Wolf: Mmmm! I smell tasty treats.
