

Fiction Readers

“Fiction Readers are based on a solid foundation of reading research, recommended instructional practice, and curriculum standards. The ultimate aim of the program is to develop students who are independent and joyful readers, able to read fluently, understand texts deeply, and take delight in stories.”

–Dr. Timothy Rasinski
Kent State University