

Table of Contents

Music . . . . .	4
West Africa . . . . .	6
Africa . . . . .	8
Australia . . . . .	10
Iran . . . . .	12
China . . . . .	14
Japan . . . . .	16
Peru . . . . .	18
Mexico . . . . .	20
Italy . . . . .	22
Your Home . . . . .	24
Solve the Problem . . . . .	28
Glossary . . . . .	30
Index . . . . .	31
Answer Key . . . . .	32

Mexico

Maracas (muh-RAH-kuhs) are played in Mexico. These shakers are made from dried gourds. They have beans, seeds, or small stones inside.

Whatever is inside affects how they sound when they are shaken. One of the maracas has a higher pitch than the other.

LET'S EXPLORE MATH

These maracas have a pattern painted on them. What color should be painted next to continue the pattern?

